

I do not endorse the use of cellular telephones during flights. Airplanes are already confined quarters and to allow for the possibility that any and all passengers could be making cell phone calls during flights is to allow for serious noise pollution!